HOSPITALITY

Acting as Christ the Shepherd, a parish committed to stewardship is a true community of faith that welcomes, honors, and involves every person in the life and work of the Church, acknowledging the blessing of our richly different backgrounds and experiences.

Renovations of Bell Tower & Narthex

It is exciting to see this project get underway! I have enjoyed many conversations this week with parishioners who share this joy! Thank you for your understanding that the renovation prevents entry to the church through the main doors. All other doors to the church are accessible.

So far, scaffolding was installed inside the narthex, tile roof was removed, and dry-rot damage repaired. Fortunately, our contractor was able to quickly coordinate repairs and we did not lose any momentum or time. They also made logistical changes that allow greater use of the plaza than we anticipated. This week, we begin installing scaffolding around the Bell Tower, removing stucco (exterior), and removing drywall (interior). Workers will be on site Monday through Friday until the renovations are complete

If you have questions about this project or any aspect of parish life, please email or call the Parish office. Thank you for your ongoing support that makes this project and our many ministries possible.

FORMATION

Acting as Christ the Teacher, a parish committed to stewardship emphasizes, through evangelization and catechesis, the development of households of faith, where our Catholic story as the Body of Christ is lived and shared with one another.

Questions for Faith Sharing August 7 Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In next week's Gospel, Luke 12:32-48, Jesus instructs his disciples not to be attached to possessions. He also stresses the importance of being prepared for the Lord's return whenever that will be. Finally, Jesus offers the disciples a warning about how to use or not use the authority that they have been given. Positions of privilege can lure people to take advantage of others. Such is not the behavior of a disciple of Jesus.

Reflection for families:

- The last sentence of today's gospel says, "Much will be required of the person entrusted with much, and still more will be demanded of the person entrusted with more." What does this mean to you?

Thursday Morning Scripture Study

On Thursday mornings a group of people meet to get to know God better through scripture study and faith sharing. On August 4 we begin studying the Book of Revelations. Join us! We will have handouts until you can order your book. We meet 9:30 -11:00 AM in the View room. For more information, contact Mary Beth Herritt: 916-939-0508.

SERVICE

Putting into action our commission as Christ the Shepherd, Priest, and Teacher, a parish committed to stewardship serves the many needs of its own parish family, as well as the needs of the larger community and the world.

Stewardship...

“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.” Luke 12:15

The Gospel message is contrary to modern culture that continually tries to convince us that our joy comes from the material things we possess. That the more we acquire, the happier we will be. Jesus shows us that our true joy comes from our “invisible” gifts like love, mercy and forgiveness. True joy comes from “emptying” ourselves, giving of ourselves rather than always taking. We are called not to hoard but to share. True joy comes from living a grateful and generous lifestyle; become more “God-centered” and less “self-centered.”

Faith Formation Needs a Few More Catechists

Have you thought about teaching our Catholic faith to others? Please prayerfully consider joining the Faith Formation Ministry as we encourage our entire community to grow in our Catholic faith and develop a relationship with Jesus Christ.

The Faith Formation Ministry is actively seeking 8 more catechists to share The Good News with the children and the families of our parish. For more information, contact ffm@holytrinityparish.org or 530-677-3234 option 5, for more information.

Maybe you feel you are not quite ready to teach; how about helping as an aid in one of our classes? No pressure, just the reward of giving your time and talent to help form our children!

Caregiver Support Group

The Caregiver Support Group is coming back this Fall! The group helps those who care or have cared for others find spiritual rest and refreshment. It is an opportunity to share your experiences in a caring environment. Join the Health Education Ministry’s Caregivers Support Group the 2nd Wednesday of each month. The next one is Wednesday, September 14, 10:30 AM – Noon in Room 1A/1B. For more information contact Ellen Miller: 916-805-5922.

Teachers needed

Teachers, do you want to teach in a faith-filled environment? Do you want to teach the most wonderful children in El Dorado County? Do you want to work in an NCEA and WASC accredited school?

Holy Trinity School Ministry is inviting applications for elementary school teacher positions available for the next school year. Please email Mrs. Denise Remick, school principal, at dremick@holytrinityschool.net for more information.

NAVIGATING THE UPS AND DOWNS OF MARRIAGE AND FAMILY LIFE

Do you wonder if you are the only couple or parent dealing with demanding children, unruly teenagers, or aging parents? How about stressors such as financial challenges, working long hours, or significant life events like a big move, career change, or empty nest? All of these things can wreak havoc on our relationships.

Whether you are married, single, divorced or thinking about marriage, come to hear Deacon Jack Roland, LCSW share his wisdom and insights gleaned over his years counseling couples, families, and individuals in how to navigate these common life challenges.

As a professional Catholic therapist with over 25 years of experience, Deacon Jack has helped people heal persistent emotional and behavioral problems. He facilitates psychological and emotional well-being in the Catholic faith community by providing clinically appropriate and effective counseling and case management services for adults, children, teenagers, couples and family therapy.
