HOSPITALITY

Acting as Christ the Shepherd, a parish committed to stewardship is a true community of faith that welcomes, honors, and involves every person in the life and work of the Church, acknowledging the blessing of our richly different backgrounds and experiences.

Parish Welcomes Fr. Marcel

July 2-3

Father Marcel Emeh was born and reared in his native country of Nigeria, the most populous nation in Africa. He is the third of six children of his father Marcel and his late mother Cordelia. Fr. Marcel's vocation began at a young age and was engendered by the witness of the deep faith of his parents. Nurtured by family prayer three times a day, regular attendance at daily Mass and Eucharistic Adoration, Fr. Marcel felt an early call to serve the Lord and his church.

Following elementary school, he applied for and was accepted for admission to a high school seminary in Nigeria where he met many other young, faithful men from across the country. He especially enjoyed its strong community life, which included daily prayer, study, shared meals, sports and many group activities. Once graduated, his attraction to communal living prompted a desire to join the Claretian Missionaries. However, after completing his philosophical studies he decided to take a leave of absence to better discern his future vocation in life.

During these sabbatical years he took advantage of an opportunity to work in Rome, which provided the chance to work in a large hotel, enjoy a comfortable life and all the benefits it provided, including travel in Europe and abroad. As the years past, however, he once again found himself yearning for a deeper calling and purpose by serving our Lord as a priest. Having recently learned about the Salvatorians (the Society of the Divine Savior), he was attracted by their charism and universality of their mission.

He was accepted by the Salvatorian province in the United States and resumed his studies by attending Sacred Heart School of Theology in Wisconsin. He was ordained a priest in June 2018 and has enjoyed serving the past four years as the parochial vicar of Divine Savior Parish in Orangevale. Fr. Marcel is now excited to begin his second assignment at Holy Trinity Parish beginning July 1.

In his free time, he enjoys fitness, hiking and going to the movies. He looks forward to meeting and getting to know the community of Holy Trinity Parish.

Farewell Reception for Fr. Pepin

Please join us after all Masses this weekend to wish Fr. Pepin the very best in his next parish and to thank him for his dedication to Holy Trinity.

Acting as Christ the Teacher, a parish committed to stewardship emphasizes, through evangelization and catechesis, the development of households of faith, where our Catholic story as the Body of Christ is lived and shared with one another.

Questions for Faith Sharing July 3

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In next week's Gospel, Luke 10:1-12, 17-20, we are provided some idea of the urgency of the disciples' mission. Nowhere else in the Gospels do we hear of this group of seventy-two followers of Jesus. Elsewhere, the Scriptures identify the twelve. This increase in the number of those preaching the news of the kingdom might be understood as a foreshadowing of what will take place in the years to come.

Reflection for families:

- In today's Gospel, the disciples of Jesus are given their instructions for ministry. What directives do you think Jesus would give you today?

FORMED[®]

THE CATHOLIC FAITH.
ON DEMAND.

Pick of the Week:

"Presence: The Mystery of the Eucharist"

The three-year Eucharistic Revival in the U.S. Church begins this Sunday with the Feast of Corpus Christi (the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ). There are many Catholics who maybe don't understand all the mysteries of the Eucharist. The Eucharistic Revival is an effort to make sure the Eucharist is the center of our faith and to rekindle the hearts of those who believe, equipping them to go out as missionary disciples to a hurt and hungry world.

SERVICE

Putting into action our commission as Christ the Shepherd, Priest, and Teacher, a parish committed to stewardship serves the many needs of its own parish family, as well as the needs of the larger community and the world.

Stewardship...

“For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love.” Galatians 5:13

We like to celebrate that we are free to “live the good life.” We can do what we want, anytime we want, with no regard for laws. But, Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that by imitating Jesus we are freed from becoming a slave to our own self-interests and desires, so that we can serve one another. We are free to share our gifts and promote God’s work on earth to glorify His name and not honor ourselves.

Saturday Confessions: Please also note there will often only be one priest available to hear Confessions on Saturday afternoons prior to the Vigil Mass. Confessions need to conclude by 5:20 PM on those days; however, parishioners are always cordially welcomed to contact the parish office to schedule a time during the week that is convenient. Please don’t hesitate to call if we can assist you in anyway.

Message from Bishop Jaime Soto on Bringing Hope in California After Roe

At different moments the disciples of Jesus were not always sure of where their journey would lead them. As Jesus approached his own sorrowful passion and death, the disciples were seized with fear and dread. To all the questions and worries, the Lord responded, “I am the way, the truth, and the life.” (Jn. 14.6) The response of Jesus was personal and faithful. He offered himself to the disciples as a faithful shepherd and companion who would not abandon his friends. He sacrificed himself for them.

With the recent Supreme Court decision, overturning the flawed 1973 abortion decision of Roe v. Wade, many people are worried about the uncertain future ahead of us. No number of years of standing precedence could erase the contrived legal machinations justifying the deliberate destruction of innocent life, but many still ponder, “Where do we go from here?” The political leadership in California is clinging stubbornly to the throw-away ideology of abortion refusing to imagine better alternatives for women and their children.

In the face of the pervasive hostile denial and distress, look to Jesus and follow his example. Our response to this historic moment must be personal and faithful. Since the 1973 decision, the Catholic community in Northern California has not only taught about the dignity of human life; we have earnestly sought out the ways to accompany women and families through many fears and uncertainties, including unplanned pregnancies. The Sacramento Life Center, the Mother Theresa and Bishop Gallegos Maternity Homes, and many other robust charitable Catholic organizations have offered a hand and given hope. In many cases, support and companionship made the difference for women and their children.

The disciples of Jesus in this generation were born for this moment. We were born ready to bring the hope and mercy of Jesus. The Lord speaks to our hearts: “I am the way, the truth, and the life.” May our words as well as our works of mercy continue to echo this saving message for others.

Now is a critical time for people of faith to become even more involved in assisting women, children and families in California needing help during an unexpected pregnancy and beyond. Our support will make the difference so that all families can flourish. Find out more at WeWereBornReady.com.

Join me in praying that we may personally and faithfully accompany others on the path to the way, the truth, and the life that Lord Jesus has given us since the very moment of conception. May the intercession of our Blessed Mother Mary grant us the confident grace to bring ourselves and others to the fullness of life.
